

Alan MECHERAF

DEVELOPER/DEVOPS

ABOUT ME

Currently a studying for a Master at Etna, a computer science school, I'm also working as a DevOps in an energy company: GazelEnergie. I'm a sharp student, a great lover of sciences, I always strive to learn as far as possible in a domain. Besides my main studies, I'm learning Japanese as a hobby and also leading an association for French, English and Japanese Language Exchange: Gengoffee.
